Milwaukee County Sheriff's Detectives Make Arrest After Suspects Point Gun at Motorist

Milwaukee, WI- Just before 11:00 this morning, the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Office received a 9-1-1 call in which a motorist stated that a suspect pointed two guns at her on southbound I-43 near North Avenue. A Milwaukee County Sheriff's detective later located the car, a Silver Pontiac Grand Prix, on northbound I-43 just north of Holt Avenue. Detectives followed the car and stopped it just as it exited the freeway at Locust Avenue.

Detectives arrested two suspects, ages 23 and 24. Detectives also located one High Point 380 handgun in the glove box and one pellet gun under the passenger's seat. Two loaded magazines were located in the car's center console. The driver was also carrying a box of ammunition. Potential charges include: Reckless Endangering Safety and Carrying a Concealed Weapon.
